Conflict of Interest Form for Peer Reviewers

It is the policy of the MARN/CEC Approver Unit to insure that peer reviewers disclose and resolve any real or potential conflict of interest of a financial, personal or professional nature they may have with an individual or a provider unit applicant.

This conflict must be brought to the committee and if the reviewer requests to be excused from the review or if the CEC determines the conflict to be significant enough to introduce a bias to the review, the chair of the CEC or the Nurse Peer Review Leader will assign another reviewer.

The peer reviewer will sign each application review sheet and attest that there was no conflict of interest that would preclude an unbiased review.
